TELEGRAPHIC.

Hancock's Nomination is Ratified by the Democrats all Over the Union.

The Convention Done its Work Quickly but Done it Well.

Its Action had the Rush of a Cyclone and the Wisdom of Inspiration.

Black Friday—Disastrous Fire in Pennsylvania—Foreign News.

St. Louis, June 25.—The Republican to-morrow, after paying General Hancock a very high compliment as a man and soldier, will speak of the ticket as follows: The ticket is built to run and will; it unites all elements of popularity, and all elements of success; it has not a flaw in its armour and the shafts of partisan malice will find no weak spot to touch it. It will require neither apology nor defense, and the recommendation that the democrats at Cincinnati have done their work wisely and well and the people will do the rest. The Times will say that the convention at Cincinnati did its work promptly and well. If it had deliberated a week it could not have made a stronger ticket, or a more able one, or a more acceptable one to the party; and to the masses. Its action had the rush of a cyclone and the wisdom of an inspiration. Gen. Hancock's nomination was in the highest degree spontaneous; he had no following of obsequious personal partisans; he was surrounded by no courtiers of politicians who have a right to claim a reversionary interest in him, and his campaign. He had no literary bureau disseminating, exaggerated compliments and eulogies of him; his campaign was entirely with agencies that are ordinarily considered essential to success and as a consequence he is without political competition and engagements, and stands for the best element in his party and country.

San Francisco, June 25.—The Call in reviewing the manner of Hancock's nomination, concludes that it is a worthy one, which will unite the democracy and render the canvass on both sides respectable. The Alta gives a sketch of Hancock's career and closes: "The time has not yet arrived for throwing mud at present we have no mud on hand and do not propose to use any. It would be a great honor to the American name, could the present canvass be conducted with clean hands on all sides. The Chronicle says that the no nominations were on the principle of any port in a storm. That Hancock is as great a concession as could be safely made to the southern brigadiers with any hope of carrying the election and as being ignorant of political affairs he will be a mere tool in the hands of southern schemers.

Columbus, Ohio, June 25.—News of Hancock's nomination was received by a large crowd at the front of the Western Union Telegraph office. Dispatches had prepared the people here for this result, and a general rush of congratulations followed for several minutes. Hancock was not the first choice of any number of democrats; but his nomination is looked upon as a fortunate escape from the various complication. As a rule, people would have preferred Tilden's nomination, and consider that, with Hancock as leader of the opposition, the coming campaign means the hardest kind of hard work.

Louisville, Ky., June 25.—The news of the nomination of Hancock and English were received by the democrats of this city with great approbation. Those who had other preference agreed it would win, one, in fact, which the democrats would unite, on with all their strength. The republicans conceded that this ticket will be hard to beat and admit the strength of the candidates, and are apparently depressed with the fact that the ticket will carry New York and Indiana.

Columbus, Ohio, June 25.—Senator Thurman spoke here to-night. He heartily approves the nomination of Hancock.

Chicago, Illinois.—The Chicago Times says that like the Chicago convention, the Cincinnati convention has taken itself and the country by surprise. It is perhaps a more commendable outcome than would have resulted from deliberate party selection. It is at all events a fortunate escape from Tilden upon which the party is to be congratulated. True, Hancock is nothing but a soldier, and not a very brilliant one at that. It was his relation to the campaign that brought English into conspicuity. Since then he has not been politically conspicuous, though a citizen of more than average ability.

Cleveland, June 25.—The news of Hancock's nomination was received here with a quiet, but general satisfaction among the democrats. H. B. Payne, in an interview, says that it is the strongest ticket the party could put up, and that it ensures every southern state, New York and Indiana, beyond doubt, and a strong probability, of New Jersey and Connecticut.

Washington, June 25.—The Secretary of War to-day suspended the recommendation of the West Point Academy Board that Whittaker be dropped on account of deficiency in his studies. This will give him opportunity of demanding court-martial in his case if he desires to vindicate himself. If he should be dismissed now he would have no chance to be heard. The excess of exports over imports for the twelve months ending May 31, 1880, is $162,183,693.

London, June 25.—The Time's Dublin special says that at an influential meeting of Irish commissioners, Lord Donoghmore, presiding, numerous communications were read urging active measures be taken to have Foster's compensation for the disturbance bill, rejected. A memorial was adopted for the Government to withdraw the bill. It was also resolved to have petitions against the bill from all parts of Ireland sent to both houses of parliament.

Chicago, June 25.—The Tribune says that the hand of a solid south is visible with the nomination of Hancock. It was a wide spread opposition of the south to Tilden which forced the latter out of the field, even at a sacrifice of the fraud issue. Hancock as the civil head of the Government, elected and controlled by the military chieftains of the late confederacy, is not likely to be the choice of a great mass of the thinking people whose pursuits are those of peace.

St. Louis, June 25.—Hayden Brown who murdered his wife's mother over a year ago; was hanged at Huntsville, Mo., this evening. He attempted suicide in the jail in Kansas City some nights ago in accordance with a plan between himself and wife, to kill himself at a certain hour; but who was prevented from carrying out his part of the agreement by the officers, who choking forced him to disgorge a heavy dose of morphine. His wife was successful, she having shot herself with a pistol.

London, June 25.—In the house of commons, Speaker Pontif, thought that it would be inconvenient to discuss the Bradlaugh matter on Tuesday. Gladstone named Monday for discussing Chaplin. The conservative move was rejected in Foresters case. The emergency for clients bill is most vehement and the speech would shake the foundation of the land. It was the greatest error in the session. Adjourned till Tuesday.

Pueblo, June 25.—The democrats ratified the nomination of Hancock and English here last night in grand style. Guns were fired, and bon fires blazed in every direction. Speeches were made by Dr. Hall, L. O. Richmond, Judge VonTosch, and others. The demonstration was of the most exciting character.

San Francisco, June 25.—The Reno savings bank suspended this morning. The cause is accommodating too many and hard times. The assets are said to be abundant to meet the liabilities. The president is down with nervous prostration.

London, June 25.—The Times financial article says that the fresh news from Buenos Ayres has been received, but a telegram is stated to have reached Paris announcing that the provincial forces had returned within the city.

Paris, June 25.—In the chamber of deputies to-day an individual in the gallery set apart for the public, threw two large stones into the hall below; but no one hurt. The man was at once arrested. He said that he wished no harm to chamber in general and not to any deputy in particular. He said that his name was Gorgelay; that he was a tailor at Vierbo; he had come to Rome with the intention of killing a personal enemy, or of committing suicide; but that being desperate and goaded by hunger, he had done something for which to be arrested in order to obtain food, in prison. He also alleged that some time ago he had received a commission to come to Rome to assassinate the King. An active investigation into the affair is progressing.

Cleveland, Ohio, June 25.—At the triple hanging to-day at Canton, Ohio the victims were as follows: Gustave A. Ohr, Geo. E. Mann, and Jno Samett, called the boy murderers because of their youth, being 16, 17, and 18 respectively. Ohr and Mann were tramps, and near Alliance last August killed a fellow tramp named Jas. Wallwauth for his watch and $5 he had. They were first sentenced to be hanged May 7th; but were reprieved. Samett committed burglary last Summer and after a futile attempt to bribe or intimidate Christopher Spöhler, his pal, who turned states evidence the day before the trial, shot and killed him. Their swaggering talk displayed during the last days was shocking. The drop fell at half past eleven this forenoon.

Berlin, June 25.—It is expected that the supplementary conference will be able to conclude its labors to-morrow and a protocol will then be adopted declaring that ambassadors have fixed the Greek frontier. The ambassadors will then report to their respective governments and powers will be dispatched of the identical vote to the Porte announcing the decision. It is believed that conference so thoroughly considered the subject and harmony, and it is so complete, that it will be unnecessary to take especial executive steps.

Chicago, Illinois, June 25.—Dennis Kearney, who was to speak in Cincinnati to-night is unable to stay on account of his health. He was compelled to leave early, and to-night he arrives here under the weather. He leaves this forenoon direct for San Francisco to compare with ex-supervisor Donahoe and M. E. Kelley. He is more than ever convinced of the weakness of the democratic ticket so far as California is concerned, and says the Greenback campaign will be run in California for all its worth.

Bradford, Pa., June 25.—A fire broke out this evening in the Westcott house, and before it could be got under control thirty-one buildings were destroyed, including the Welsh house, Postoffice, Luna Valley house and the Oil Exchange. All the buildings were light frames and the town being without water supply the only manner in which the fire could be stopped was to tear down buildings. The loss is aggregated at $35,000.

London, June 25.—In the house of commons this afternoon on motion of Stevenson, liberal, for closing public houses on Sunday in England and Wales, which was adopted, by a vote of 163 to 117, with Peases amendment that said houses should be closed as nearly as possible the whole day. Goot opposed the measure.

Chicago, June 25.—The Journal prints; but utterly discredits the statement from Galena to New York that Grant would repudiate Garfield and support Hancock. Judge Porter, the republican candidate for Governor of Indiana regards yesterday's nomination very weak as far as Indiana is concerned.

Berlin, June 25.—The conference was entirely unanimous regarding the Greek frontier line, which is that elaborated by Gen. L. Simons before he left London. It was submitted by him for approval by France, and recommended to a conference by Count Destallier. The proposal is, therefore, an English one.

New York, June 25.—The Times says epigrammatically that it is a peculiarly constituted party which send a rebel brigadier to Congress because of their rebellion, and which nominates a union general as the candidate for President of the United States because of his loyalty.

Paris, June 25.—In the senate the debate on the report against accepting petitions against the anti-semitic decrees was resumed. Premier de Frequent defended the decrees. The motion of the Duke de Pasquier to forward the petitions to the President of the council and the minister of Justice, was then rejected by a vote of 143 to 127. The Chamber of Deputies adopted the war estimates. The Tribunal of the Seine has condemned Sarah Bernhardt to pay the Comedie Francaise a hundred thousand francs damages and has further declared her to have forfeited all the rights and privileges resulting from her engagement of 75 nights with the Comedie Francaise, which is equal to an additional loss of 44,000 francs.

Paris, June 25.—Premier Defreyne in receiving the deputation in favor France-American commercial treaty said the overtures had been made by the French members at Washington; but replied that such a treaty was desirable; but circumstances obliged the United States Government to defer negotiations.

Chicago, June 25.—One man was killed and another lost an arm and both eyes, and another both hands at Marshalltown, Iowa, while firing a salute over the Cincinnati nomination. A premature discharge was the cause.

London, June 25.—Intelligence from Buenos Ayres represents that a battle was fought on the 22d between the Nationals and Provincial troops, the latter was routed. National troops however, was repulsed in an assault upon the city of Buenos Ayres on the 23d.

London, June 25.—The Times states that Bradlaugh will this evening present himself at the table house and ask to have the oath administered. Six thousand persons met at the Northampton last evening to protest against the exclusion of Bradlaugh from the house.

Berlin, June 25.—It is considered here possible that if necessary the western powers will make a naval demonstration to enforce the decisions of the conference. Prince Orloff has arrived in Berlin and he will probably confer with Prince Bismark.

Dubuque, June 25.—A report sent out of Galena says that Gen. Grant has declared his intention to support Hancock. It is denied by the General and arose from the fact of his having given his opinion that Hancock would be elected.

St. Louis, June 25.—The nomination of Hancock and English was received here with great approval. The ticket is hailed by them with genuine enthusiasm.

New York, June 25.—Dispatches from various prominent points throughout the east and south, mention enthusiastic rejoicing of democrats over the Cincinnati nominations.

Madrid, June 25.—The council of State adopted the bill regulating the condition of the negro; and in Cuba, reducing the number of working hours, and the probability of corporal punishment.

Washington, June 25.—The President arrived here to-day. He will leave to-morrow for New Haven, where he will attend the commencement exercises of Yale College and remain the greater part of next week.

New York, June 25.—Gov. Hancock received congratulatory messages from Thurman, Payne and Gen. Schofield this morning.

London, June 25.—In the house of lords the bill legalizing the marriage with a deceased wife's sister, was rejected by a vote of 101 to 90.

Gibraltar, June 25.—The Steamer Dessouk with the Obelisk on board will sail for the United States to-day.

Berlin, June 25.—In the conference to-day the report of the delegates on the French proposal was unanimously adopted by the plenipotentiaries.
